

cbse-eng-07-sci-3-2-2

In our country, many breeds of sheep are there, which yield wool. Not only sheep, wool is produced by many other animals. They are not only sheep, but also other animals.

Summary:

In India, there are many breeds of sheep that produce wool.

- Wool is not only obtained from sheep but also from other animals.
 - Various animals, such as goats, yaks, camels, alpacas, and llamas, also produce different types of wool.
 - Wool from these animals is used to make warm clothing and textiles.
-

Quiz:

1. Which animal is the primary source of wool in India?

- a) Sheep ☒
- b) Elephant ☐
- c) Dog ☐
- d) Tiger ☐

2. Besides sheep, which other animals produce wool?

- a) Goats, yaks, and camels ☒
- b) Cats, dogs, and rabbits ☐
- c) Lions, tigers, and bears ☐
- d) Snakes, crocodiles, and frogs ☐

3. What is wool mainly used for?

- a) Making warm clothing ☒
- b) Making plastic products ☐
- c) Building houses ☐
- d) Cooking food ☐

4. Which of the following statements is true?

- a) Only sheep produce wool ☐
- b) Wool can come from yaks, camels, and goats ☒

c) Wool is obtained from fish ✕

d) Wool is used to make glass items ✕